

S00236 - Institutional Economics

Series Number: S00236

Series Title: Institutional Economics

Dates: 1965-2002

Extent: 2.28 m of textual records
95 audio cassettes

Scope and Content: Series consists of records documenting Medow's work as an economist, particularly his work on institutional economics. It includes Medow's research reports written for the now defunct Economic Research and Systems Planning Group at York University, drafts and unpublished articles, conference papers, and other research reports. It also contains a collection of audio cassettes, most of them unlabelled, on which Medow recorded his thoughts and reflections in the field of institutional economics as well as his work in other areas.
