

S00381 - Earl's Court Community Project

Series Number: S00381

Series Title: Earl's Court Community Project

Dates: 1971-1973

Extent: 0.03 metres textual records
104 photographs

Biographical Sketch/
Administrative History: The Earl's Court Project was created to organize the first English school for immigrant women and their pre-school children, provide tutoring services for immigrant high school students, and encourage citizen participation in community development programmes. This project became a model which attracted government funding for similar initiatives across the province. Norquay was the volunteer director for the Earl's Court Community project in Toronto, Ontario during this period.

Scope and Content: Series consists of notes, board minutes, reports and a set of oversize photographs of participants and their activities.

Other Notes: 1. Title based on content of series.