

S00412 - Canadian Women's Foundation files

Series Number: S00412

Series Title: Canadian Women's Foundation files

Dates: 1990-1992

Extent: 0.45 m of textual records

Scope and Content: Series consists of records created and accumulated by Marilou McPhedran relating to her involvement with the creation the Canadian Women's Foundation, founded to distribute funds to programs and projects assisting the self-reliance and economic independence of girls and women. The records in this series document the activities of the foundation in its first two years, particularly its board meetings and fundraising efforts to secure support from individuals, organizations and institutions, as well as McPhedran's work as interim director of the foundation in 1990. These records include correspondence, memoranda, minutes, questionnaires, notes, contracts, news releases, and invoices. Some records in this series were created by McPhedran's assistant for this project, Vicki Armstrong.

Restrictions on Access and Use: No restrictions on access.

Arrangement: Series is arranged in alphabetical order.