Scope and Content: Series consists of records created and accumulated by William Packer that are separate from the Crowe dispute files and as such pertain to his academic career both as a student and as a teacher, including his time spent at United College in Manitoba, University of Toronto, City of Toronto Board of Education, and Royal Military College. The records regarding United College mainly address salary negotiations and the emergence of the Canadian Association of University Teachers. The series contains correspondence, newsletters, bulletins, drafts for speeches and interviews, curriculum vitae, transcripts, certificates, contracts, visas, licenses, permits, and ephemera.

Arrangement: Arrangement imposed on series by the archivist.

Language of Material Note: Most of the materials relating to Royal Military College are in German.

Other Notes: 1. Title is based on contents of series.
