

S00478 - News in review

Series Number: S00478Series Title: News in reviewDates: 1990-1994Extent: 0.15 m of textual material 37 videocassettes (ca. 35 hrs.) : VHS.Scope and Content: Series consists of videocassette recordings, scripts, teaching resource guides, and survey results for News in review, a subscription series of educational programs offered by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. Knowlton Nash hosted the monthly compendium of news stories covering national and international topics that focus on the social sciences, history, and media literacy, as well as episodes devoted to the Canadian landscape, the Meech Lake Accord, and Canada's relationship with the monarchy. The series includes scripts prepared by Nash for his voice-over work as well as stories narrated by Nash.Restrictions on Access and Use: No restrictions on access.Other Notes: 1. Students at Markville Secondary School and Westmount Collegiate Institute with the York Region District School Board have prepared indexes for CBC TV's News in review -- including the period covered by this series -- which can be found on the Internet.