

S00597 - Property development and real estate, residential : brochures and flyers

Series Number: S00597

Series Title: Property development and real estate, residential : brochures and flyers

Dates: 1912, [198-]-2010

Extent: 0.975 m of textual records

Scope and Content: Series consists of brochures and flyers pertaining to residential real estate in Toronto. These records, mostly produced and distributed by real estate and property development companies, document new growth in the residential housing market as well as the methods of advertising and promoting newly developed or planned residential properties around the Toronto area, primarily condominiums and townhouses built between the 1980s and the 2000s.

Arrangement: Series is arranged alphabetically by address or property name.