

File:	Title:	Date(s):	Note:
-------	--------	----------	-------

Call Number: 2000-005/001

- (1) "Mr. Peoples Credit: The Story of Frank Gerstein, and the Stores that Changed the Way Canada Shops", manuscript

Video cassettes - Saywell retirement party, 2 May 1998

- |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |            |  |
|-----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|--|
| (2) | Tape I: Jonathan Edmondson, Acting Chair, Dept of History Chair; Willard Piepenburg, University Professor Emeritus; Panel: H. Blair Neatby, Carleton University, retired; Penny Bryden, (MA, PhD, York), Mount Allison; Lorna Marsden, President, York University; Tom Traves (PhD, York, Ex-Dean of Arts, York), President, Dalhousie University | 2 May 1998 |  |
| (3) | Tape II: Chair, Clara Thomas, York University; Eric Koch, CBC Producer, retired; Laurier Lapierre (Saywell's first PhD graduate); Gene Allen, CBC                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 2 May 1998 |  |
| (4) | Tape IV: Christopher Armstrong, History, Master of Ceremonies; Lorna Marsden; George Fallis, Dean of Arts; Christopher Armstrong; John Saywell                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 2 May 1998 |  |